ABSTRACT

The guide is one of a series of 10 units composing an orientation to the world of work course designed especially for disadvantaged and handicapped students in the ninth and tenth grades. It is designed to provide basic and remedial instruction in personal development, math, and language skills while providing information and skills basic or common to employment in all occupations. Topics treated in the course are (1) the first days on the job, (2) employer-employee relationships, (3) interpersonal relationships with co-workers, and (4) changing jobs. The course deals with specific problems and the natural fears of the beginner, discussing forms, rules, qualities necessary to get along with employer and co-worker, and changing jobs to meet long-range goals. Lesson plans present major and supporting concepts and specify performance objectives. Suggested resources are correlated to teaching-learning-evaluation strategies, which are subdivided to meet the separate needs of the disadvantaged and the handicapped. A resource section specifies sources and costs of audiovisual aids. The final section offers student materials which include a variety of supportive classroom materials. (MW)

Introduction

This unit, "How to Keep a Job," is one of the series of the "Orientation to the World of Work" units designed for special vocational education teachers who have disadvantaged and handicapped students in their classes. There are nine other units in the series:

- Occupational Safety
- Learning About Jobs
- Getting a Job
- Introduction to Orientation to the World of Work
- Personal Development
- Self-Appraisal for Employment
- The Role of Work in Our Society
- Taxes Affecting the Worker
- Handling Your Paycheck

Acknowledgments

Special thanks is extended to the typists, Ms. Nancye Kusche and Mrs. Mary Couch, and to the teachers who assisted with the field testing, Mrs. Dana Lee Proffitt, Mr. Russell Hobbs, Mrs. Mary Alice Yokley and Mr. Randy Reynolds.

Unit: HOW TO KEEP A JOB

1. Rationale

Many students do not realize that there are some basic rules and qualifications necessary for keeping a job. This unit is designed to present some of these basic rules and qualifications which are an important area of study for all high-school students. The unit is directed to those disadvantaged and handicapped students who do not receive the environmental experiences conducive to job success.

All disadvantaged and handicapped students will become participating members in our society. Their chances of attaining some measure of success will depend largely upon the ability to make a living. In order to reach a maximum level of economic sufficiency, these students must develop the necessary skills for holding a job. In this unit these special needs will be met.

The unit will introduce students to the knowledge, concepts, and attitudes that are prerequisite for successful work experiences in an "Orientation to the World of Work" program. It should be taught before the students are placed in actual job situations.

Included in the unit are a combination of vocational and modified academic instruction that provides the dual educational opportunities of acquiring vocational skills and knowledge pertinent to holding a job, as well as basic knowledge in the fields of math, science, English, and social studies. This dual approach will enable the students to reach the maximum personal development, including employment potential, within their ability.

II. Subject Matter Outline

- A. First Days on the Job
  - 1. What to Expect
  - 2. Forms to Fill Out and Understand
  - 3. Beginner's Problems and Natural Fears
  - 4. How to Get Off to a Good Start
- B. Employer-Employee Relationships
  - 1. What the Employer Expects
  - 2. How to do a Good Job
  - 3. What to Expect from the Employer
- C. You and Your Co-Workers
  - 1. Fitting in as a Beginner
  - 2. Establishing Good Work Relationships
  - 3. Handling Difficult Situations
- D. Changing Jobs
  - 1. Being Dismissed
  - 2. How to Resign
  - 3. Getting a Promotion

III. Unit Objectives

The student will

1. Explain how knowledge of "First Days on the Job" will help him be a more capable worker.
2. Identify specific rules relative to getting along with an employer.
3. List the qualities necessary in getting along with his co-workers.
4. Describe how and when it would be desirable to change jobs for greater career satisfaction and to meet long-range goals.

IV. Interest Approach (Select the most appropriate.)

- A. Start the preparation of a personal notebook to which the student will add materials during the study of this unit. (Instructions for the preparation of such a notebook are given on p. 50 of the Student Materials Section of this unit.)
- B. Show the filmstrip "The ABC's of Getting and Keeping a Job," available on free loan from Teachers' Resource Center, D/H, U.K.
- C. Show the film "How to Keep a Job," available from Audio-Visual Services, U.K.
- D. Invite a resource person to relate his experiences as a beginning worker.
Possible resource persons:
  - (1) A former student who is now working part time

- (2) A young adult who is successfully employed
- (3) An employer

(The resource person should cover the importance of good employee behavior, appearance, and health and physical conditions in his discussion.)

E. Discuss Bulletin Board ideas as:

- "Are You Downgrading Your Future?" p. 115
- "People Form Opinions of Us by the Way We Act," p. 115
- "Become Aware of the Necessity of Good Habits," p. 115

MAJOR CONCEPT:

A. First Days on the Job

SUPPORTING CONCEPT:

1. What to Expect
2. Forms to Fill Out and Understand
3. Beginner's Problems and Natural Fears
4. How to Get Off to a Good Start

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVES:

The student will

1. Describe some of the things he must do on his first day at work in order to get acquainted with his job, his employer, and his co-workers.
2. Fill out and/or describe what is meant by:
  - a. W4 Form
  - b. K4 Form
  - c. Time card
  - d. Payroll deductions
3. Give possible workable solutions to overcoming the fears associated with work as described in selected case situations.
4. Identify a few simple rules to follow which contribute to success.

INSTRUCTIONS: Keeping a Notebook on "How to Keep a Job"

1. Start the preparation of a personal notebook to which you will add items during the study of this unit.
  - a. Write a title page. It will include the name of this course, the unit title, and your name.
  - b. Begin a "Table of Contents" page. Add categories as you add items to the notebook throughout the year.
2. Set aside a section for written class assignments. This notebook will provide you an opportunity to practice the skills of writing, organizing, and maintaining good records and reports which you will need on the job. It will also serve as a personal reference guide which you can use now and in the future. It will reflect your personal characteristics, neatness, completeness, and organization.
3. Include practice forms developed to increase your speed, accuracy, and knowledge of the world of work.
4. Include also information concerning your interests and any other personal and technical information designed to help you advance on the job.
5. Do not mix notes and materials from other classes. Include only material from your "Orientation to the World of Work" class.
6. Keep your notebook in the classroom available to your teacher and fellow students at all times. Keep your notebook up to date and the table of contents complete. Make it neat, complete, and attractive. Do a good job. Plan a notebook you will be proud to show your parents, teacher, and future employer.

Grading Periods _____ 1 _____ 2 _____ 3

GET OFF TO A GOOD START

A. Observe working hours.

1. Arrive five to ten minutes early to get organized for the working day.
2. Find out what's expected in terms of working hours; taking breaks; possible overtime; when the lunch period is; possible Saturday, Sunday, and holiday work; and when the rush periods are likely to occur.
3. Expect to stay late occasionally and to help out during emergencies and illness of other employees.

B. Understand the following forms relative to your employment:

1. Form W-4; the Employee's Withholding Exemption Certificate
2. The time card
3. Your pay check
4. Other (ID card, parking permit, insurance, etc.)

C. Learn about your job, the company, and the other workers.

1. Find out who your boss is (who assigns you work and to whom you are directly responsible.)
2. Learn what the person who held your job previously did. Ask questions when the answers aren't obvious. Don't remain silent and ignorant.
3. Watch for the unwritten rules. For example:
  - a) No smoking or eating on the job.
  - b) No personal phone calls.
  - c) No wisecracks and personal kidding.
  - e) Refer to your boss as Mr. _____.
4. Learn and confirm new names by repeating them and using them in conversation.
5. Learn to handle your routine assignments well.
6. Assume more responsibility as soon as you are able.
7. Improve yourself by taking advantage of company training programs and adult courses offered at schools and colleges.

D. Conduct yourself in an ethical manner.

1. Do not pass confidential information to anyone.
2. Never use confidential company information for your own profit.
3. Think ahead and do what you think is right.
4. Do not start anything you know you cannot finish. (False promises create false hope.)
5. Do not ask a business associate for financial assistance. Whether he helps or refuses, you have put him in an awkward position.
6. Respect the authority that your company has vested in your supervisor. If you must disagree with him, do so tactfully and in private.
7. "Treat other people as you want them to treat you." Beware of the grapevine and stifle any tendency to pass judgment. Look for good points.

E. Be a prized employee.

1. Develop a reputation for efficiency.
  - Plan your work.
  - Do your most important work first or when your mind is fresh.
  - Complete one job before starting another, whenever possible.
  - Whenever possible use shortcuts. (But do not sacrifice quality.)
  - Have adequate supplies on hand and at work station at all times.
2. Aim to please.
  - Be dependable. Be someone who can be counted on.
  - Be neat.
  - Start by yourself and work hard.
  - Be organized, but be willing to change as needed.
  - Show interest and enthusiasm.
  - Do not abuse the good will of others.

F. Adjust personal life to avoid conflict of interest.

1. Find a reliable mode of transportation to work and a reliable substitute to use in case of emergency.
2. If you will be living away from home, locate in a reputable neighborhood. Look for a place which will provide the privacy, security, and comforts you want and can afford. As a rule, a month's rent should not exceed a week's income. Consider the following:
  - a. Room in a private home vs. upstairs apartment or an efficiency apartment vs. renting a house with others
  - b. Distance to work and nearness to city bus lines
  - c. Distance to shopping and laundry facilities
3. Live within your income to prevent financial embarrassment to yourself and your employer who must process the garnishment to your wages when a creditor collects a bad debt. A budget will help. Make a list of projected money needs for such items as the following:
  - a. Rent and utilities
  - b. Transportation
  - c. Food
  - d. Taxes
  - e. Savings
  - f. Clothing
  - g. Laundry and dry cleaning
  - h. Personal care
  - i. Medical care
  - j. Recreation
  - k. Miscellaneous
4. Leave your personal life at home. Plan recreational and shopping activities after work or on a break. Save romance and family problems for after work. Do not get involved in an office romance.
5. Locate a doctor and a dentist near your place of residence who can maintain your health as the need arises. Allow time for rest.
6. Plan recreational activities for enrichment as well as for fun.

CASE STUDIES

The purpose of studying cases is to discuss the proper channels to take when working with people in various situations.

INSTRUCTIONS

Read through each case study carefully, answer the questions, and then discuss the questions in small groups. You should complete both case studies in 20 minutes.

Case No. 1 TO SPEAK OR NOT TO SPEAK

Marilyn Clark's employer has had a bad day. He has given reprimands to several of the employees and discharged one salesman. When Marilyn answers his ring to take dictation, he reproves her for being late. He had sent Marilyn on an errand a few minutes before, and she could not have returned earlier. When he says, "Why don't you ever get here promptly? I always have to wait for you," it is too much for Marilyn. She answers, "Because I had gone to the filing room to find those papers you wanted!" Her employer then says coldly, "You may go back to your more important work. I'll dictate to one of the others."

1. Evaluate Marilyn's handling of this situation.
2. What would you do in a similar case?
3. Is it helpful to fix the blame? Why or Why not?

Case No. 2

NEGATIVE VS. POSITIVE

John Lockyer has been working for the Maurice Clothing Store for more than two years. He is an excellent salesman and has many regular customers. He has felt that his opportunities are very good as the other salesmen are much older and John appeals to the college fellows. At the end of John's second year, an older salesman, Mr. Adams, retires and Mr. Anderson, the owner, hires Bill Reese, a young man with many of the same abilities and advantages as John. At the first sight of Bill--a handsome, cheerful fellow--John decides to make it so unpleasant for him that he will quit his job. He is sullen to Bill, refuses to tell him about Mr. Adams' former customers, and is generally unpleasant. Bill recognizes John's dislike at once. Instead of quitting his job, however, he resolves to win John's friendship.

1. Do you think this is possible?
2. What steps should Bill take to reach this goal?
3. Why is John behaving as he does?

SELF ANALYSIS OF PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS

Frequently we offend others unknowingly. The list below was compiled from the results of hundreds of answers to the question, "What physical traits keep people from presenting a good appearance and hence hurt their personalities?" Place a check mark (✓) before each thing that applies to you.

_____ Dirty fingernails
_____ Dirty hands
_____ Beard
_____ Yellow or unclean teeth
_____ Visible blackheads
_____ Pimples on face
_____ Dirty neck
_____ Dirty ears
_____ Greasy hair
_____ Dirty scalp
_____ Dandruff
_____ Hair too long
_____ Ragged fingernails
_____ Dirty shirt
_____ Soiled underclothes
_____ Baggy trousers

_____ Unshined shoes
_____ Dirty, dusty shoes
_____ Body odor
_____ Halitosis
_____ Too few baths
_____ Inappropriate clothes
_____ Stoop shoulders
_____ Awkward posture
_____ Hair not combed
_____ Greasy skin
_____ Broken shoestring
_____ Buttons missing
_____ Clothes fitting poorly
_____ Dirty handkerchief
_____ Dirty collar and cuffs
_____ Run-over heels

Number of checks _____

If you checked fewer than five items, you are neater and better groomed than the average student.

If you checked between five and ten items, you are below average in neatness and should do something about it now.

If you checked more than fifteen, you are in pretty bad shape. Drastic action is necessary.

Look over the items that you checked. Each one is a personality defect in the eyes of other persons. Each defect can be eliminated or improved.

Getting Along With Others*

BUSINESS RELATIONSHIPS
CASE SITUATIONS TO ROLE PLAY AND DISCUSS

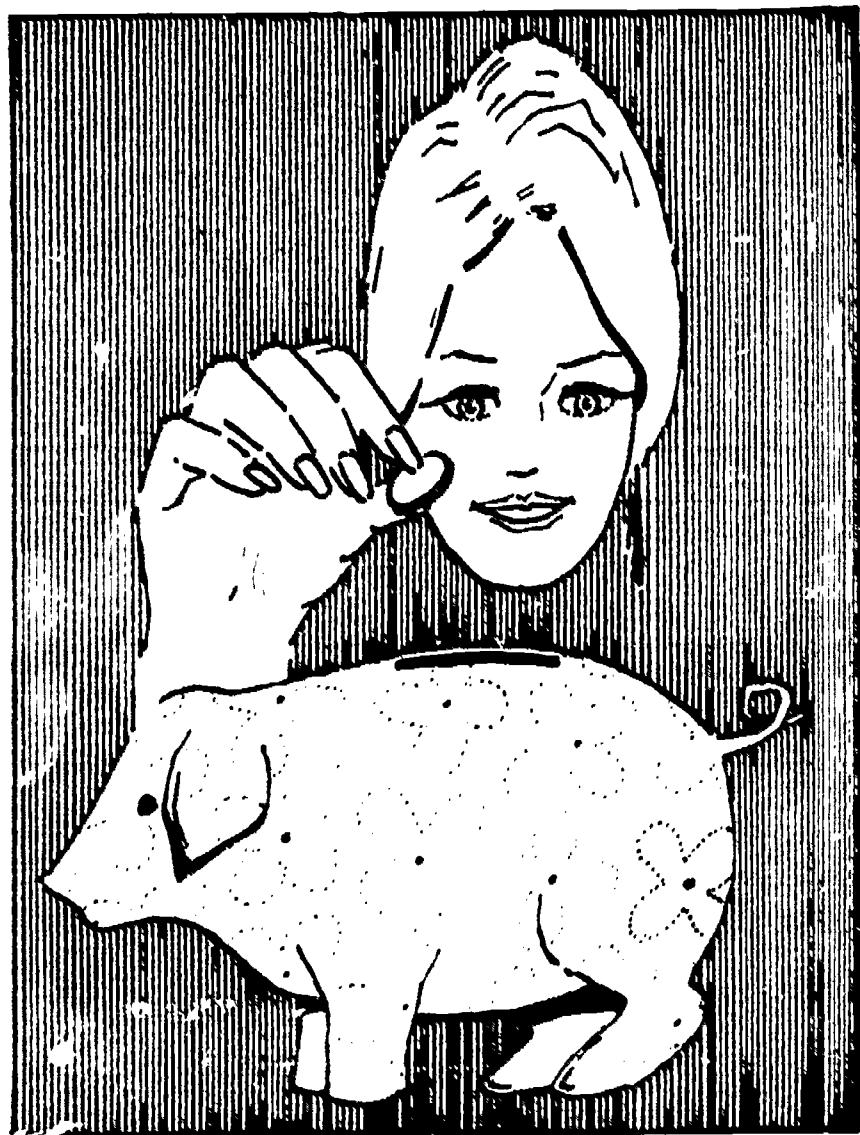

1. In Company A everyone is on a first name basis, including the manager. John is new on the job. How should he address his co-workers? Give reasons for your answers.
2. The working hours in Company A are from 9 to 5, with two 10-minute coffee breaks and one hour for lunch. John has a scheduled deadline to meet and works better in the morning. He prefers not to take his scheduled morning break. Since he brings his lunch, he does not need an hour to eat. By afternoon, he gets so bogged down that he's ready for a longer break. What should John do?
  - a. Take a longer break in the afternoon.
  - b. Take his breaks as scheduled even though he is more productive in the morning and risk meeting his deadline.
  - c. Finish his work early and leave.
  - d. Other suggestions. _____

What values do you place on the personal attitudes, traits, and characteristics which make work and relations with others easier?

Personal
Qualifications
are Like -

"MONEY IN THE BANK"

ARE YOU WILLING TO:

1. Accept existing group standards?
2. Avoid existing frictions, feuds, and cliques?
3. Accept existing conflicts of personalities?
4. Accept difficulties of work with grace?

QUESTIONS TO PONDER

1. Do you get along well with your parents and other adults?
2. Do you find something interesting in most of your classes?
3. Do you feel that you have nothing to offer, that you are nobody, that no one can help you?
4. Do you find that your teachers usually seem satisfied with what you do?
5. Do you practice courtesy, modesty, and good manners at all times?
6. Do you find it easy to talk with and get along with the opposite sex?
7. Do you take suggestions regarding your personal improvements?
8. Do you take every opportunity to meet strangers and make new friends?
9. Do you consider the other person's feelings and wishes?
10. Do you take a realistic view of your good and bad points?
11. Do you make a real effort to read widely and learn new things?
12. Do you practice the golden rule in your relations with others?
13. Do you make a practice of being clean and well-groomed?
14. Do you try to set an example for others in everything you do?
15. Do you try to be an outgoing, friendly person toward both sexes?

CAN YOU CONTROL YOUR NEGATIVE EMOTIONS?

Plan your self-control campaign.

1. Identify your negative emotions.
2. Determine when, how, and why they occur.
3. Determine the necessary measures to control.
4. Apply remedies and actions for controlling and correcting.

WHEN YOU WANT TO CHANGE JOBS

1. Plan your exit.
2. Leave in a business-like manner. The job you leave becomes a part of your work references.
3. Give a minimum two-week notice. The company may need time to find a replacement or prefer that you remain to train the person who takes your place. Some companies prefer that the employee giving notice leave at once, in order to maintain the morale of the other workers.
4. Interviews for a position with another company should be conducted on the employee's own time--during lunch or after five o'clock, for example.

Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate

The explanatory material below will help you determine your correct number of withholding allowances, and will indicate whether you should complete the new Form W-4 at the bottom of this page.

How Many Withholding Allowances May You Claim?

Please use the schedule below to determine the number of allowances you may claim for tax withholding purposes. In determining the number, keep in mind these points: If you are single and hold more than one job, you may not claim the same allowances with more than one employer at the same time; If you are married and both you and your wife or husband are employed, you may not claim the same allowances with your employers at the same time. A nonresident alien other than a resident of Canada, Mexico or Puerto Rico may claim only one personal allowance.

(a) Allowance for yourself—enter 1 . . . . .	_____
(b) Allowance for your wife (husband)—enter 1 . . . . .	_____
(c) Allowance for your age—if 65 or over—enter 1 . . . . .	_____
(d) Allowance for your wife's (husband's) age—if 65 or over—enter 1 . . . . .	_____
(e) Allowance for blindness (yourself)—enter 1 . . . . .	_____
(f) Allowance for blindness (wife or husband)—enter 1 . . . . .	_____
(g) Allowance(s) for dependent(s)—you are entitled to claim an allowance for each dependent you will be able to claim on your Federal income tax return. Do not include yourself or your wife (husband)* . . . . .	_____
(h) Special withholding allowance—if you have only one job, and do not have a wife or husband who works—enter 1 . . . . .	_____
(i) Total—add lines (a) through (h) above . . . . . If you do not plan to itemize deductions on your income tax return, enter the number shown on line (i) on line 1, Form W-4 below. Skip lines (j) and (k).	_____
(j) Allowance(s) for itemized deductions—if you do plan to itemize deductions on your income tax return, enter the number from line 5 of worksheet on back . . . . .	_____
(k) Total—add lines (i) and (j) above. Enter here and on line 1, Form W-4 below. *If you are in doubt as to whom you may claim as a dependent, see the instructions which come with your last Federal income tax return or call your local Internal Revenue Service office.	_____

See Table and Worksheet on Back if You Plan to Itemize Your Deductions

Completing New Form W-4

If you find that you are entitled to one or more allowances in addition to those which you are now claiming, please increase your number of allowances by completing the form below and filing with your employer. If the number of allowances you previously claimed decreases, you must file a new Form W-4 within 10 days. (Should you expect to owe more tax than will be withheld, you may use the same form to increase your withholding by claiming fewer or "0" allowances on line 1 or by asking for additional withholding on line 2 or both.)

What If You Itemize Deductions?

If you expect to itemize deductions on your income tax return, you may be entitled to claim one or more additional withholding allowances on line (j) on page 1. You may claim one additional withholding allowance for each $750, or fraction of $750, by which you expect your itemized deductions for the year to exceed the amounts shown in columns (A), (B), (C) below.

Estimated salaries and wages	Single employees (with one job)	Married employees		Married employees (both husband and wife working) and employees working in more than one job
		(B)	(C)
	(A)
Under $8,000	$1,700	$1,700	$1,700	$1,700
$8,000-10,000	1,800	1,800	1,800	2,000
10,000-12,000	2,200	2,200	2,200	2,700
12,000-15,000	2,400	2,400	2,400	2,700
15,000-20,000	2,400	2,400	2,400	3,300
20,000-25,000	2,400	2,400	2,400	4,000
25,000-30,000	2,900	2,400	2,400	4,900
30,000-35,000	3,800	2,400	2,400	5,900
35,000-40,000	4,900	2,700	2,700	6,900
40,000-45,000	6,400	3,500	3,500	7,900
45,000-50,000	7,900	4,500	4,500	9,100

If your annual salary or wages exceeds $50,000, you may claim one additional withholding allowance for each $750, or fraction of $750, by which your expected itemized deductions will exceed the following: A single employee with one job—19 percent of annual salary or wages; A married employee with one job whose wife or husband is not working—13 percent of annual salary or wages; A married employee whose wife or husband is also working, or an employee who holds more than one job—22 percent of the combined or total annual salary or wages.

Determining Withholding Allowances For Itemized Deductions

The worksheet below .... be helpful to you in determining whether your expected itemized deductions entitle you to claim one or more additional withholding allowances.

Worksheet

1 Total estimated annual salary or wages (from all sources) . . . . .	2	$
2 Total expected itemized deductions for the year . . . . .	3	$
3 Appropriate amount from column (A), (B), (C) or footnote 1, above . . . . .	4	$
4 Balance. Subtract line 3 from line 2. (If "0" or less, you are not entitled to additional allowance(s) for itemized deductions) . . . . .	5	$
5 If the amount on line 4 is:
Enter on line 5	Enter on line 5	Enter on line 5
Between $0—$750 : . . . 1	Between $2,251—$3,000 : . . . 4	Between $4,501—$5,250 : . . . 7
751—1,500 : . . . 2	3,001—3,750 : . . . 5	5,251—6,000 : . . . 8
1,501—2,250 : . . . 3	3,751—4,500 : . . . 6	6,001—6,750 : . . . 9
Note: If the amount on line 4 is over $6,750 you get 9 allowances, plus 1 allowance for each $750 or fraction thereof by which the amount on line 4 exceeds $6,750. If the balance on line 4 is less than "0," you may be having too little tax withheld. You can generally avoid this by claiming one less allowance (than the total number to which you are entitled) for each $750 by which the estimated deductions on line 2 are less than the amount on line 3.
Enter this number on line ( ), page A.

Social Security No. _____

Print home address _____

EMPLOYEE:

File this form with your employer. Otherwise, he must withhold Kentucky income tax from your wages without exemption.

EMPLOYER:

Keep this certificate with your records. If the employee is believed to have claimed too many exemptions, the Department of Revenue should be so advised.

HOW TO CLAIM YOUR WITHHOLDING EXEMPTIONS

1. If SINGLE, and you claim an exemption, write "1"; if you do not, write "0" ..... .
2. If MARRIED, one exemption each for husband and wife if not claimed on another certificate.
  - (a) If you claim both of these exemptions, write "2" .
  - (b) If you claim one of these exemptions, write "1" .
  - (c) If you claim neither of these exemptions, write "0" .
3. Exemptions for age and blindness (applicable only to you and your wife but not to dependents):
  - (a) If you or your wife will be 65 years of age or older at the end of the year, and you claim this exemption, write "1"; if both will be 65 or older, and you claim both of these exemptions, write "2" .
  - (b) If you or your wife are blind, and you claim this exemption, write "1"; if both are blind, and you claim both of these exemptions, write "2" .
4. If you claim exemptions for one or more dependents, write the number of such exemptions. (Do not claim exemption for a dependent unless you are qualified under instruction 3 on other side) .....
5. Add the number of exemptions which you have claimed above and write the total .....
6. Additional withholding per pay period under agreement with employer. See instruction 1 ..... $

I CERTIFY that the number of withholding exemptions claimed on this certificate does not exceed the number to which I am entitled.

(Date) _____, 19 _____

(Signed) _____

1. NUMBER OF EXEMPTIONS.—Do not claim more than the correct number of exemptions. However, if you expect to owe more income tax for the year than will be withheld if you claim every exemption to which you are entitled, you may increase the withholding by claiming a smaller number of exemptions or you may enter into an agreement with your employer to have additional amounts withheld.

2. CHANGES IN EXEMPTIONS.—You may file a new certificate at any time if the number of your exemptions INCREASES.

You must file a new certificate within 10 days if the number of exemptions previously claimed by you DECREASES for any of the following reasons:

(a) Your wife (or husband) for whom you have been claiming exemption is divorced or legally separated, or claims her (or his) own exemption on a separate certificate.

(b) The support of a dependent for whom you claimed exemption is taken over by someone else, so that you no longer expect to furnish more than half the support for the year.

OTHER DECREASES in exemption, such as the death of a wife or a dependent, do not affect your withholding until the next year, but require the filing of a new certificate by December 1 of the year in which they occur.

For further information about changes in exemption status resulting from marriage, divorce, legal separation, birth, death, new dependents, etc., consult the Department of Revenue, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601, or your employer.

3. DEPENDENTS.—To qualify as your dependent (line 4 on other side), a person (a) must receive more than one-half of his or her support from you for the year, and (b) must not be claimed as an exemption by such person's husband or wife, and (c) must be a citizen of the United States, or a resident of the United States, Canada, or Mexico, and (d) must be related to you as follows:

Your son or daughter (including legally adopted children), or their descendants, stepson, stepdaughter, son-in-law, or daughter-in-law;

Your father, mother, or ancestor of either, stepfather, stepmother, father-in-law, or mother-in-law;

Your brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, half brother, half sister, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law;

Your uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece (but only if related by blood).

4. PENALTIES.—Penalties are imposed for willfully supplying false information or willful failure to supply information which would reduce the withholding exemption.

Learning Packet 1

Learning Packet 1

HOW TO MAKE A GOOD IMPRESSION

Prepared by
Mrs. Ernestine Scott
Boyle County High School

Instructions to the Teacher

The purpose of this packet is to provide an audio-visual learning experience concerned with the attitudes and personality traits which contribute to job success. It is designed especially for disadvantaged students because many of them have undesirable qualities in these areas. It is also recommended to help the handicapped become aware of what is desirable. The packet is designed for individualized instruction (to be used by one student at his own rate). It may also be used for group instruction. Be sure to describe the packet and its purpose and give instructions to the students on how they are to proceed.

Materials Included

The following instructional materials are included:

- a. Typed script for making a cassette recording
- b. Pre-test
- c. Series of illustrations, correlated with the tape script, which may be used for making transparencies or duplicated and bound together as a student booklet
- d. Post-test

Objective for the Student

Identify the attitudes and personality traits which contribute to job success.

Tape Script*
MAKING A GOOD IMPRESSION

To begin this lesson, please complete Exercise 1 which your teacher will pass to you. This deals with the importance of attitudes in the world of work. When you have completed the form, return it to your teacher. Stop the recorder now. When you have completed the form and returned it to your teacher, start the recorder again.

Look at Illustration 1 or Transparency 1 on "How to Make a Good Impression." It is often amazing to see the different impressions people make on other people by their attitude. There are a few people who approach jobs and school with the attitude that there is a war going on. They are on the good side and all the employers and teachers are on the bad side. They appear to be ready to fight about anything: salary, working conditions, hours of work or deductions. Very few of these people are hired; or if they are, they probably won't hold their jobs very long. Some students fail to realize that the basic idea of getting a job and working is to make a contribution to a particular business or company and to receive rewards (salary) for their work. This is what it is all about. One young person asked, "Once I get a job that I like, how can I make sure that I will always have it?" That is not an easy question to answer. There is very little that is guaranteed forever in this life. No one can tell you that you will always have the job you like. Things happen. Sometimes people are fired because they do not exhibit the proper attitude towards their job, working, or getting along with fellow employees. Success in your job will be determined largely by the way you are able to get along with other people. If you should ask the question, "What does it take to make it in the world of jobs?" the chances are that not many people could give you a complete answer. There is no special rule--no magic formula--to insure success on the job; but there are many requirements that are common to nearly every kind of job. These have to do with attitudes. Attitudes play an important role in the life of an individual. One's entire outlook on life is expressed in his personal attitude. Basic personal abilities, salable skills, good work attitudes and education are all fine, important sounding words, but what do they mean? What exactly are some basic characteristics which make proper attitudes and personal abilities? Let's take a look at some of these.

*Record a "beep" or warning signal on the tape as an indicator to change activities or refer to the next illustration.

Cooperation (Illustration 2 or Transparency 2)

Gaining the cooperation of others is extremely important to the person working. Take the initiative in being helpful; but do this because you want to, not because you want to be praised or thanked.

---

Friendliness (Illustration 3 or Transparency 3)

Friendliness is the first key to success in working with others. One should smile and maintain a pleasant disposition regardless of the attitudes of others.

Respect (Illustration 4 or Transparency 4)

One should respect all members of his group regardless of social standing or ability. Each employee should recognize the dignity and worth of every human being.

Sincerity (Illustration 5 or Transparency 5)

A person who is sincere is characterized by high moral principles and never makes the habit of misleading someone by concealing the truth. This quality is a must for success in any job.

Enthusiasm (Illustration 6 or Transparency 6)

Enthusiasm is as necessary to job success as breathing is to living. A person who is enthusiastic shows a lot of interest and concern for his job.

Willingness (Illustration 7 or Transparency 7)

Willingness to do what is expected of you and willingness to help others whenever possible will help you to realize success yourself.

Tolerance (Illustration 8 or Transparency 8)

A person who has tolerance has the disposition to be patient and fair toward those whose opinions or practices differ from his own. Many times on a job, you will find opinions and practices with which you differ. You must show patience with people even though you may not agree with them. One should not be strongly opinionated toward a subject to the point of offending others. Strong convictions are desirable, but no one has the right to force or impose his opinions on others.

Interest (Illustration 9 or Transparency 9)

To really enjoy your job, you must have an interest in what you are doing. You must become involved in what you are doing. Participate because you are interested. A person who is not interested in what he is doing will do a poor job.

Loyalty (Illustration 10 or Transparency 10)

One should never carry idle tales to the boss or fellow employees if he expects to be accepted by everyone. A person who tells the boss confidential statements of others will not get along well in most job situations. Disloyalty often leads to job failure.

Honesty (Illustration 11 or Transparency 11)

Honesty is a requirement for job success in all situations. A person must be honorable and upright in principles, intentions, and actions in order to be trusted. No employer will keep an employee that he cannot trust.

Maturity (Illustration 4 or Transparency 4)

Maturity is many things. It is the ability to base a judgment on the big picture--the long haul. Maturity is the ability to stick with a job or situation until it is finished. The person who is constantly changing jobs and changing friends is immature. He can't stick it out because he hasn't grown up. Maturity is the capacity to face unpleasantness, frustration, discomfort, and defeat without complaint or collapse. The mature person knows he can't have everything his own way.

Appearance (Illustration 13 or Transparency 13)

Your appearance is an important factor in job success. You should always be neat, clean, and appropriately dressed for your job. A sloppy dresser is usually a sloppy worker.

Poise (Illustration 14 or Transparency 14)

Poise is the ability to hold yourself steady and remain composed in any situation. A person who panics easily or becomes frustrated easily will not be able to perform his job well.

Initiative (Illustration 15 or Transparency 15)

A person who is capable of taking initiative is one who has the readiness and ability to start a task on his own. He is the leader and he doesn't have to be told what to do next. This quality will help anyone attain job success.

Accuracy (Illustration 16 or Transparency 16)

Accuracy is the quality of being exact or correct. This is absolutely necessary in any job. You can't go very far in the world of work without accuracy. For example, a shipping clerk who misdirects packages because he can't read address numbers correctly won't last long on the job nor will a waitress who overcharges her customers for their meals because her addition is poor.

Dependability (Illustration 17 or Transparency 17)

Dependability means living up to your responsibilities. The world is filled with people who can't be counted on: (1) people who never seem to come through in the clutches, and (2) people who break promises and substitute alibis for performance. They show up late or not at all. They are confused and disorganized. Their lives are a chaotic maze of unfinished business. Do you mean what you say and say what you mean?

Perserverence (Illustration 18 or Transparency 18)

Perserverence is the ability to stick with a situation until it is finished. For continual job success, you must maintain a purpose and stick to it steadfastly.

Thoughtfulness (Illustration 19 or Transparency 19)

Being thoughtful is the ability to take thought for the comfort and good of others. It often means providing little attentions,

Learning Packet 1--Tape Script

offering services, or in some way being considerate. It means being careful not to hurt the feelings of others. Whenever possible, one should help others to achieve success.

Industriousness (Illustration 20 or Transparency 20)

Industriousness is the quality of being hard working and diligent. A person who is diligent puts forth a constant effort to accomplish something. He is attentive and persistent in completing his work. This quality is a must if you are to be a success in the business world.

Ambition (Illustration 21 or Transparency 21)

As an employee, you have an obligation to yourself to not just put in your time every day with no goals to work toward. Set high goals for yourself and work hard to achieve these goals. You should do your best to achieve the skills necessary to make you a success on your job. Once you have developed the skills and attitudes you desire, you should use them properly. This will lead to promotions. Many people who have started out in very minor jobs have worked their way up to be the manager or the owner of a business. If you are ambitious enough, this could happen to you.

Listen (Illustration 22 or Transparency 22)

One should be conscious of the importance of listening carefully to the opinions and comments of others. Many people are adept at expressing their own opinions. Few know the true meaning of listening to others.

Pride (Illustration 23 or Transparency 23)

Pride in work is being able to put forth your best efforts so that you can take pleasure and satisfaction from it. In your job the amount of success gained will depend upon how much pride you have shown in your work.

Summary

In conclusion, remember, an employer can provide jobs, certain favorable conditions, and rewards for his employees. But, this does not necessarily mean that the employee will succeed. What does this mean to the employee? It means that he will be largely responsible for his own success or failure. It is up to him to recognize the characteristics required for success in his job.

Proper attitude and personality traits are of key importance to young workers; the lack of them is one of the most frequent causes for job failure. Success in your job is based not only on your ability to perform the job but also on your attitude toward your work. Success is based on knowledge, skill, attitude, appearance, speech and action. Remember, the advantages possessed by the young worker who does develop a fine character and attractive personality certainly make the effort to develop them worthwhile. These characteristics do not come by simply memorizing facts but by constant practice of better habits of thinking and acting. The job is up to you.

At the beginning of the lesson you completed an exercise on the importance of attitude in the world of work. By now, you know attitude and personality go hand in hand. To help you recognize your strengths and weaknesses in these areas, please complete Exercise 2. Stop the recorder and take this Exercise from your teacher. This completes the learning packet on "How to Make a Good Impression on the Job."

Learning Packet 2

HOW TO KEEP A JOB

Prepared by
Mrs. Ernestine Scott
Boyle County High School

Instructions to the Teacher

The purpose of this packet is to provide an audic-visual learning experience which will help the student understand and remember some simple rules he must follow in order to keep a job.

The packet may be used for either group or individualized instruction. Before using it in either situation, be sure to describe the packet, make the objective to be attained clear, and give complete instructions on how the student is to proceed. When the packet is to be used by one student at his own rate, you may wish to duplicate the illustrations and staple them together in booklet form rather than have the student use the overhead projector or view from the illustrations directly from the transparencies.

Materials Included

The following instructional materials are included:

- a. Typed script for making a cassette recording
- b. Pre-test
- c. Series of illustrations, correlated with the tape script, which may be used for making transparencies or duplicated and bound together as a student booklet
- d. Post-test

Objective for the Student

List ten rules which one must follow in order to keep a job and tell why following them is necessary.

TAPE SCRIPT*
HOW TO KEEP A JOB

Introduction (Illustration 1 or Transparency 1)

You got the job. You start tomorrow, and right now you feel as if butterflies are having a party in your stomach. You are wondering: Will I like it? Will they like me? Can I do the job? Relax, your new boss must have thought you could do the job or he would not have hired you. He wants you to work for him. He wants you to do well, and you will if you follow a few simple rules. How many of these do you already know? Stop the tape and complete Exercise 1.

Look right for the job. (Illustrations 2 & 3 or Transparencies 2 & 3)

Fancy party clothes or jazzy sports clothes are not right for business. The rule here is clothes that are simple, clean, and neat. That also goes for hairdo, haircut, makeup, fingernails, shoes and shaves.

Be on time, coming and going. (Illustration 4 or Transparency 4)

People who come in late, take long lunch hours, or leave early are cheating the boss of work time for which he is paying. Don't think he won't notice. He'll remember when you ask for a raise.

If you can't come to work, call the boss and tell him. (Illustration 5 or Transparency 5)

No business can operate without workers. Your boss needs to know if you can't be there so that he can get somebody else to do your work for that day.

*Record a "beep" or warning signal on the tape as an indicator to change activities or refer to the next illustration.

Learning Packet 2 -- Tape Script

Do the work that has to be done. (Illustration 6 or Transparency 6)

Every job has parts that aren't fun. Some secretaries hate to file. Some mechanics hate to clean up and put away tools. Just remember, your work isn't finished until every part of it is done.

When you're at work, work! (Illustration 7 or Transparency 7)

Horsing around, taking other workers' time with conversation, or making personal phone calls takes time away from work. Business hours are for business.

Be polite to everyone. Get along with people. (Illustration 8 or Transparency 8)

Keep your temper even if someone is rude to you. You will notice that the nicest people you work with are the ones who are always ready to help. Be like them.

Do what you are asked to do. (Illustration 9 or Transparency 9)

Your boss may ask you to do something that is not the work you think you were hired to do. It happens to everybody. Don't argue about it. Just do it as well as you can. You might learn something new.

Get to be good at your job. (Illustration 10 or Transparency 10)

Learn to do it fast and well. When your employer needs someone for a better job he will probably consider one of his workers for it. If you have done your job well, you may get promoted.

Be able to take instructions. (Illustration 11 or Transparency 11)

Don't think you know more than your boss. Remember he's been on the job a lot longer than you. So, if his instructions seem strange to you, don't say: "That's not the way we learned it in school." Do it his way.

Be able to take criticism. (Illustration 12 or Transparency 12)

Don't think your boss is picking on you if he tells you you're doing something wrong. He wants you to succeed on your job. The chances are that what he tells you is for your own good.

Rules to Remember. (Illustration 13 or Transparency 13)

Let's go over the rules to remember in keeping a job so that they will be clear in your mind. If you have not copied each rule, please do so now. Copy the rules in the order in which they are presented on the summary sheet. You may use these to assist you in answering Exercise 2 which will follow this summary.

KEEPING A JOB

EXERCISE 2
KNOWING WHEN A RULE IS BROKEN

Instructions: Read and complete the following exercise.

How well do you understand what you have just seen and heard about keeping a job? Can you spot the rules being broken in the following statements? Put the number of the rule on the line by each statement.

1. "Mary punched my time card for me yesterday when I was late, so today I'm doing it for her."
2. "Sorry I couldn't call to tell you I wouldn't be in yesterday. Hope it didn't cause you any trouble."
3. "I've been looking for that wrench you wanted, but I just can't seem to lay my hands on it."
4. "Oops, here comes the boss; and I haven't finished that letter. I'll call you back as soon as he's gone."
5. "A laugh a minute, that's me!"
6. "That's not my job!"
7. "You've got some nerve talking to me like that. Who do you think you are?"
8. "That's not how we learned it in school."
9. "If Mr. Smith corrects me one more time, I think I'll quit."
10. "That's not my job, and I won't do it."

Learning Packet 3

PERSONAL HAPPINESS AND FULFILLMENT WHICH COME FROM WORK

Prepared by

Mrs. Doris Love
Warren Central High School

To the Teacher

The purpose of this packet is to provide an audio-visual learning experience which shows the student that there are rewards received from working other than the money we receive. It also points out some frustrations. It is designed to be used by one student at a time as an individualized learning experience. Describe the packet and its purpose to the students, and give them instructions on how to proceed.

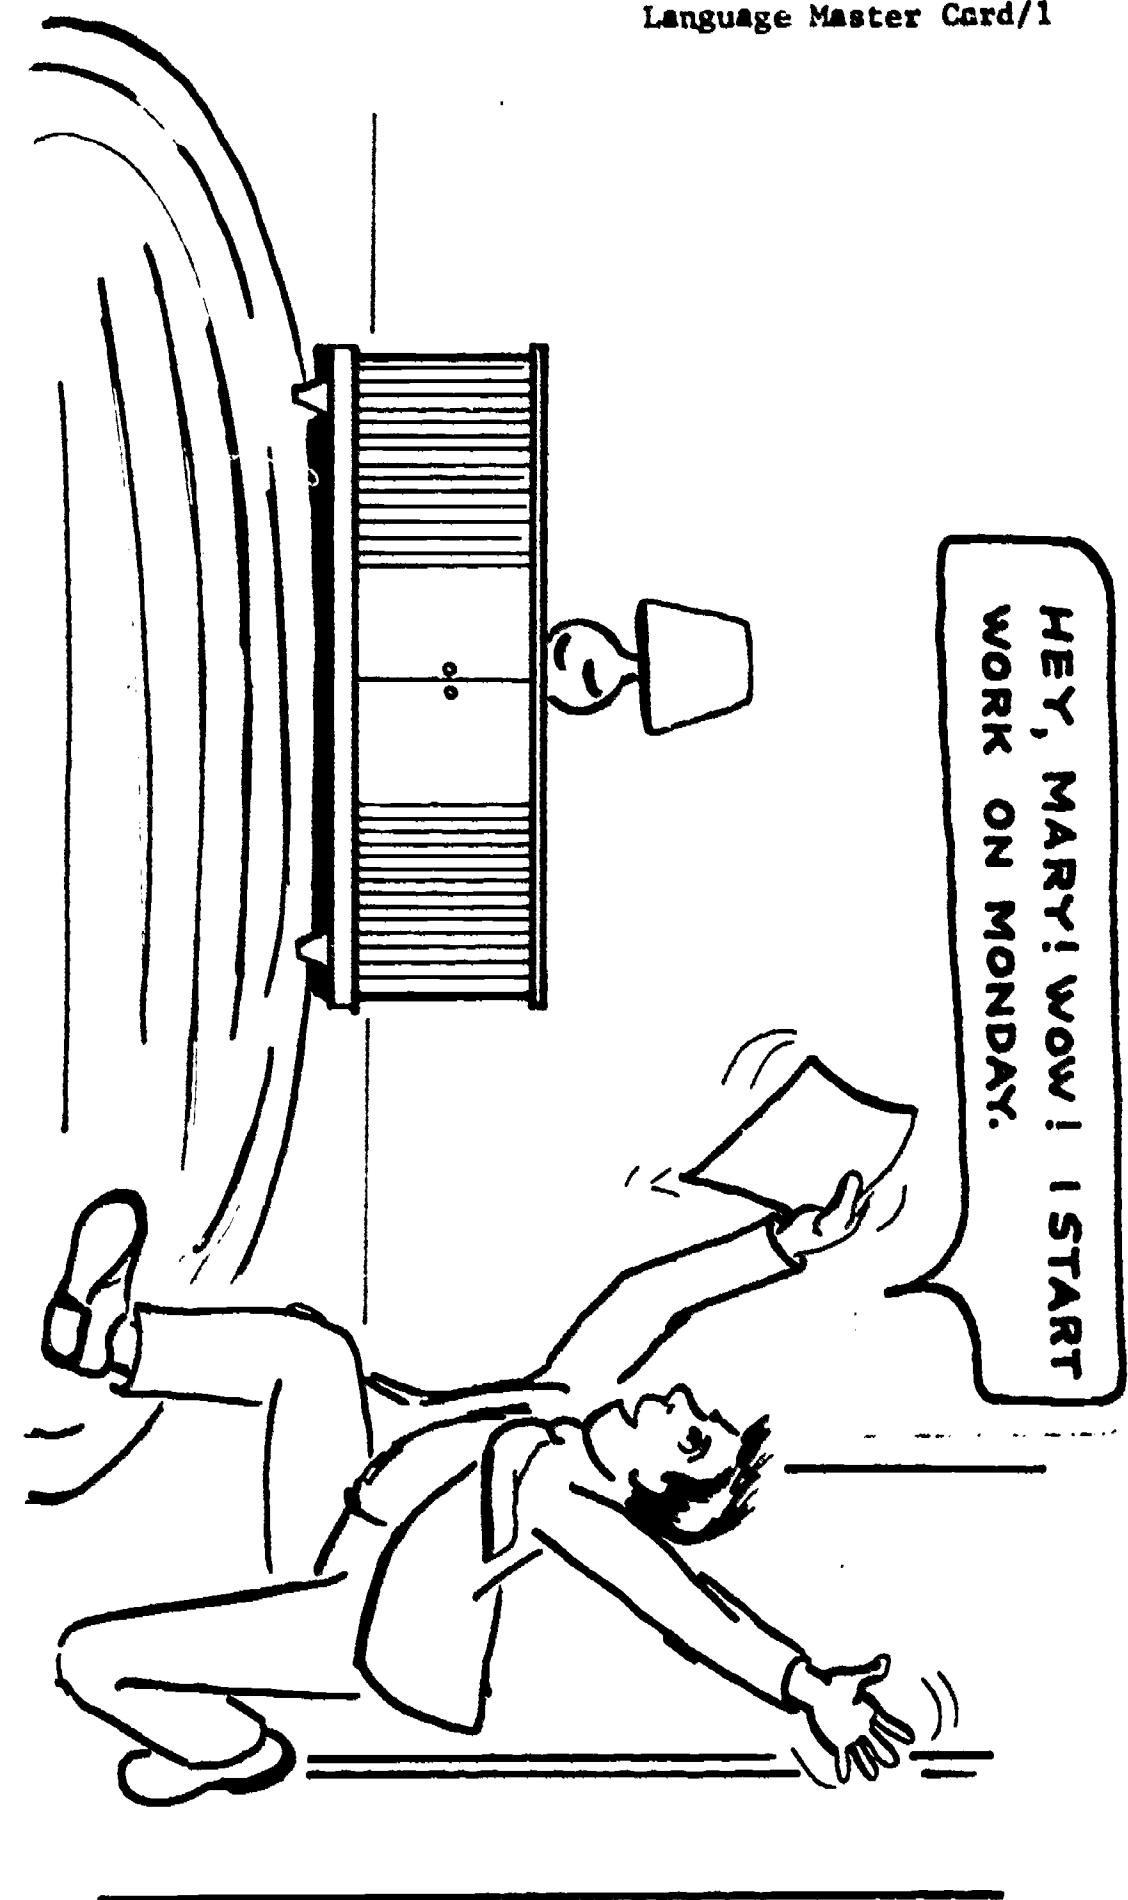

Materials Included

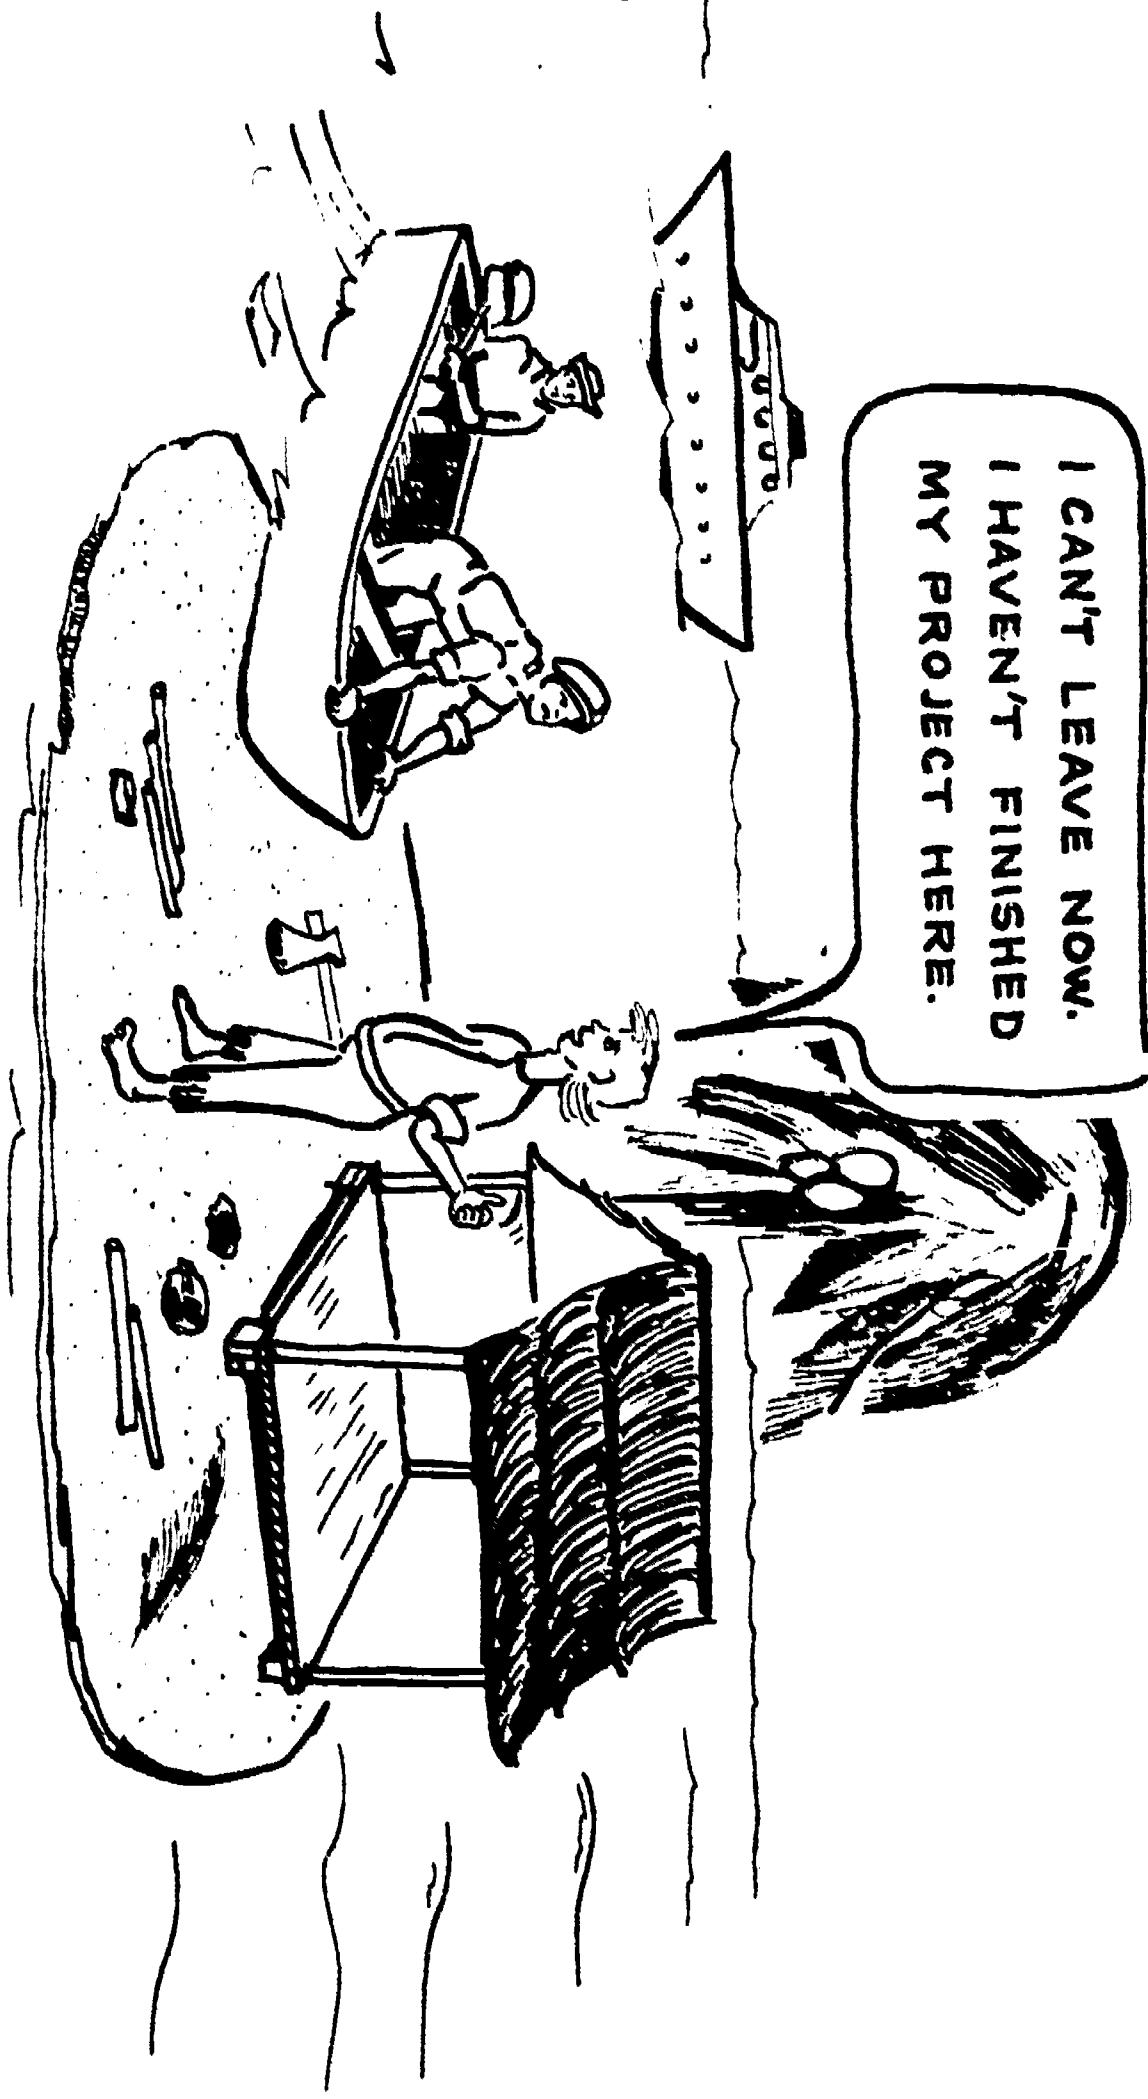

9 cartoons with captions

Attach the cartoons to language master cards. Then record the captions on the sound strip. Add any additional comment or instruction you wish to make to help the student identify what evidence is shown that work is fulfilling.

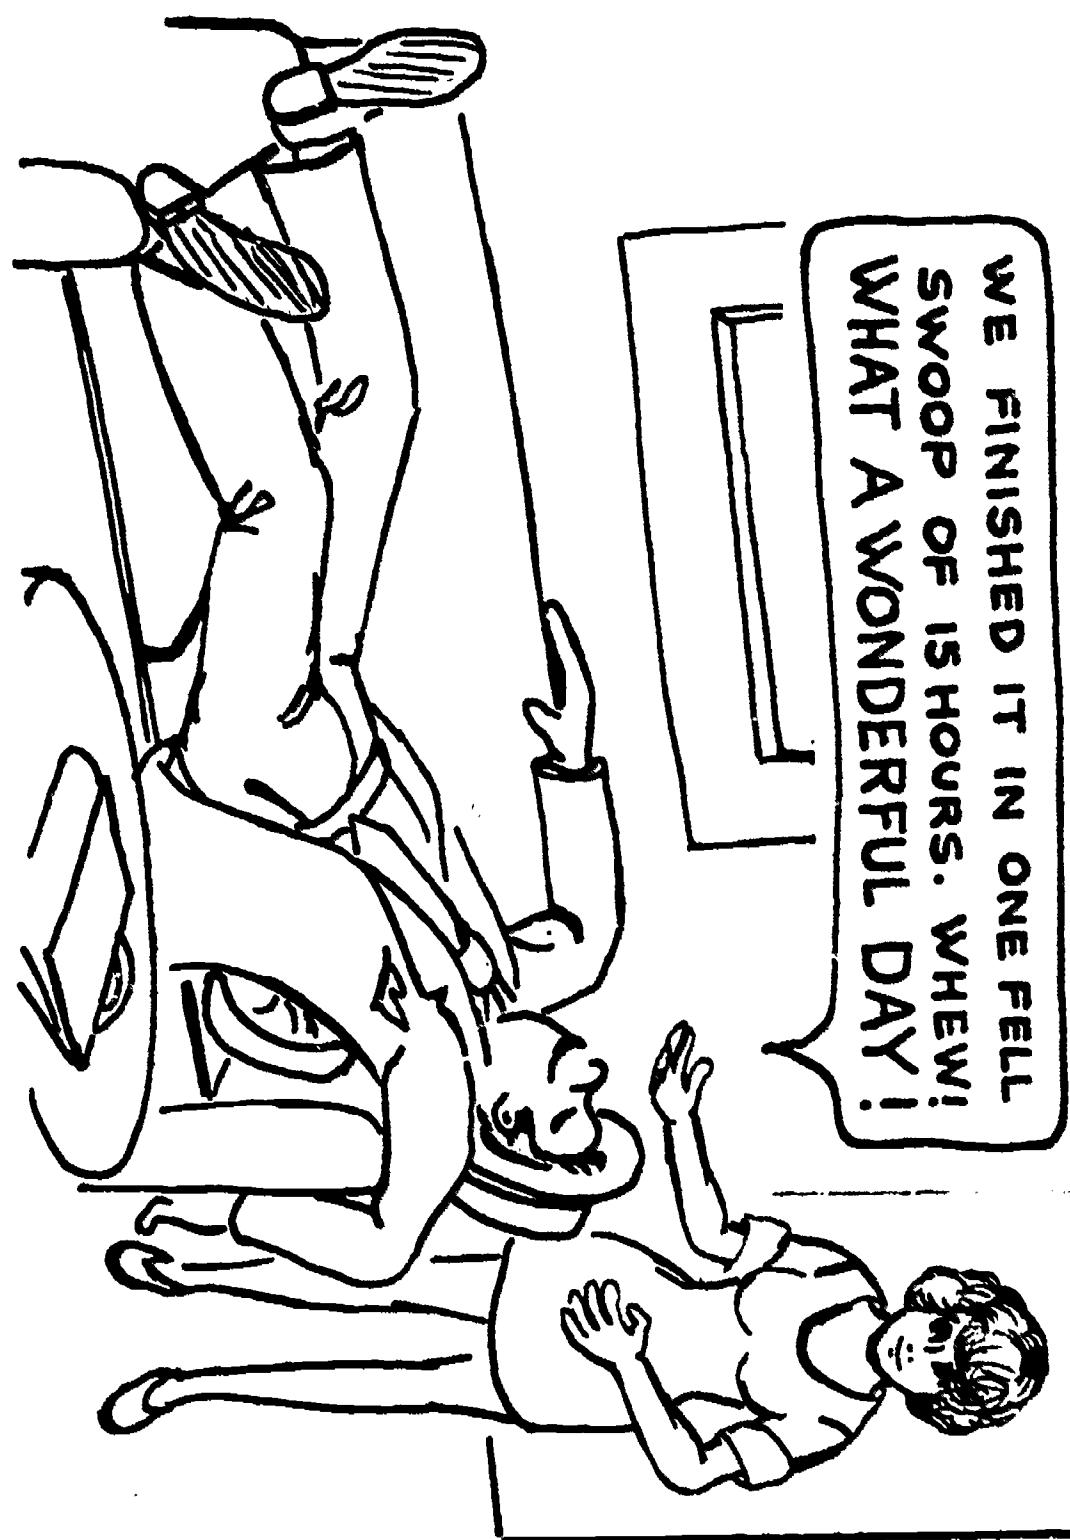

Objective for the Student

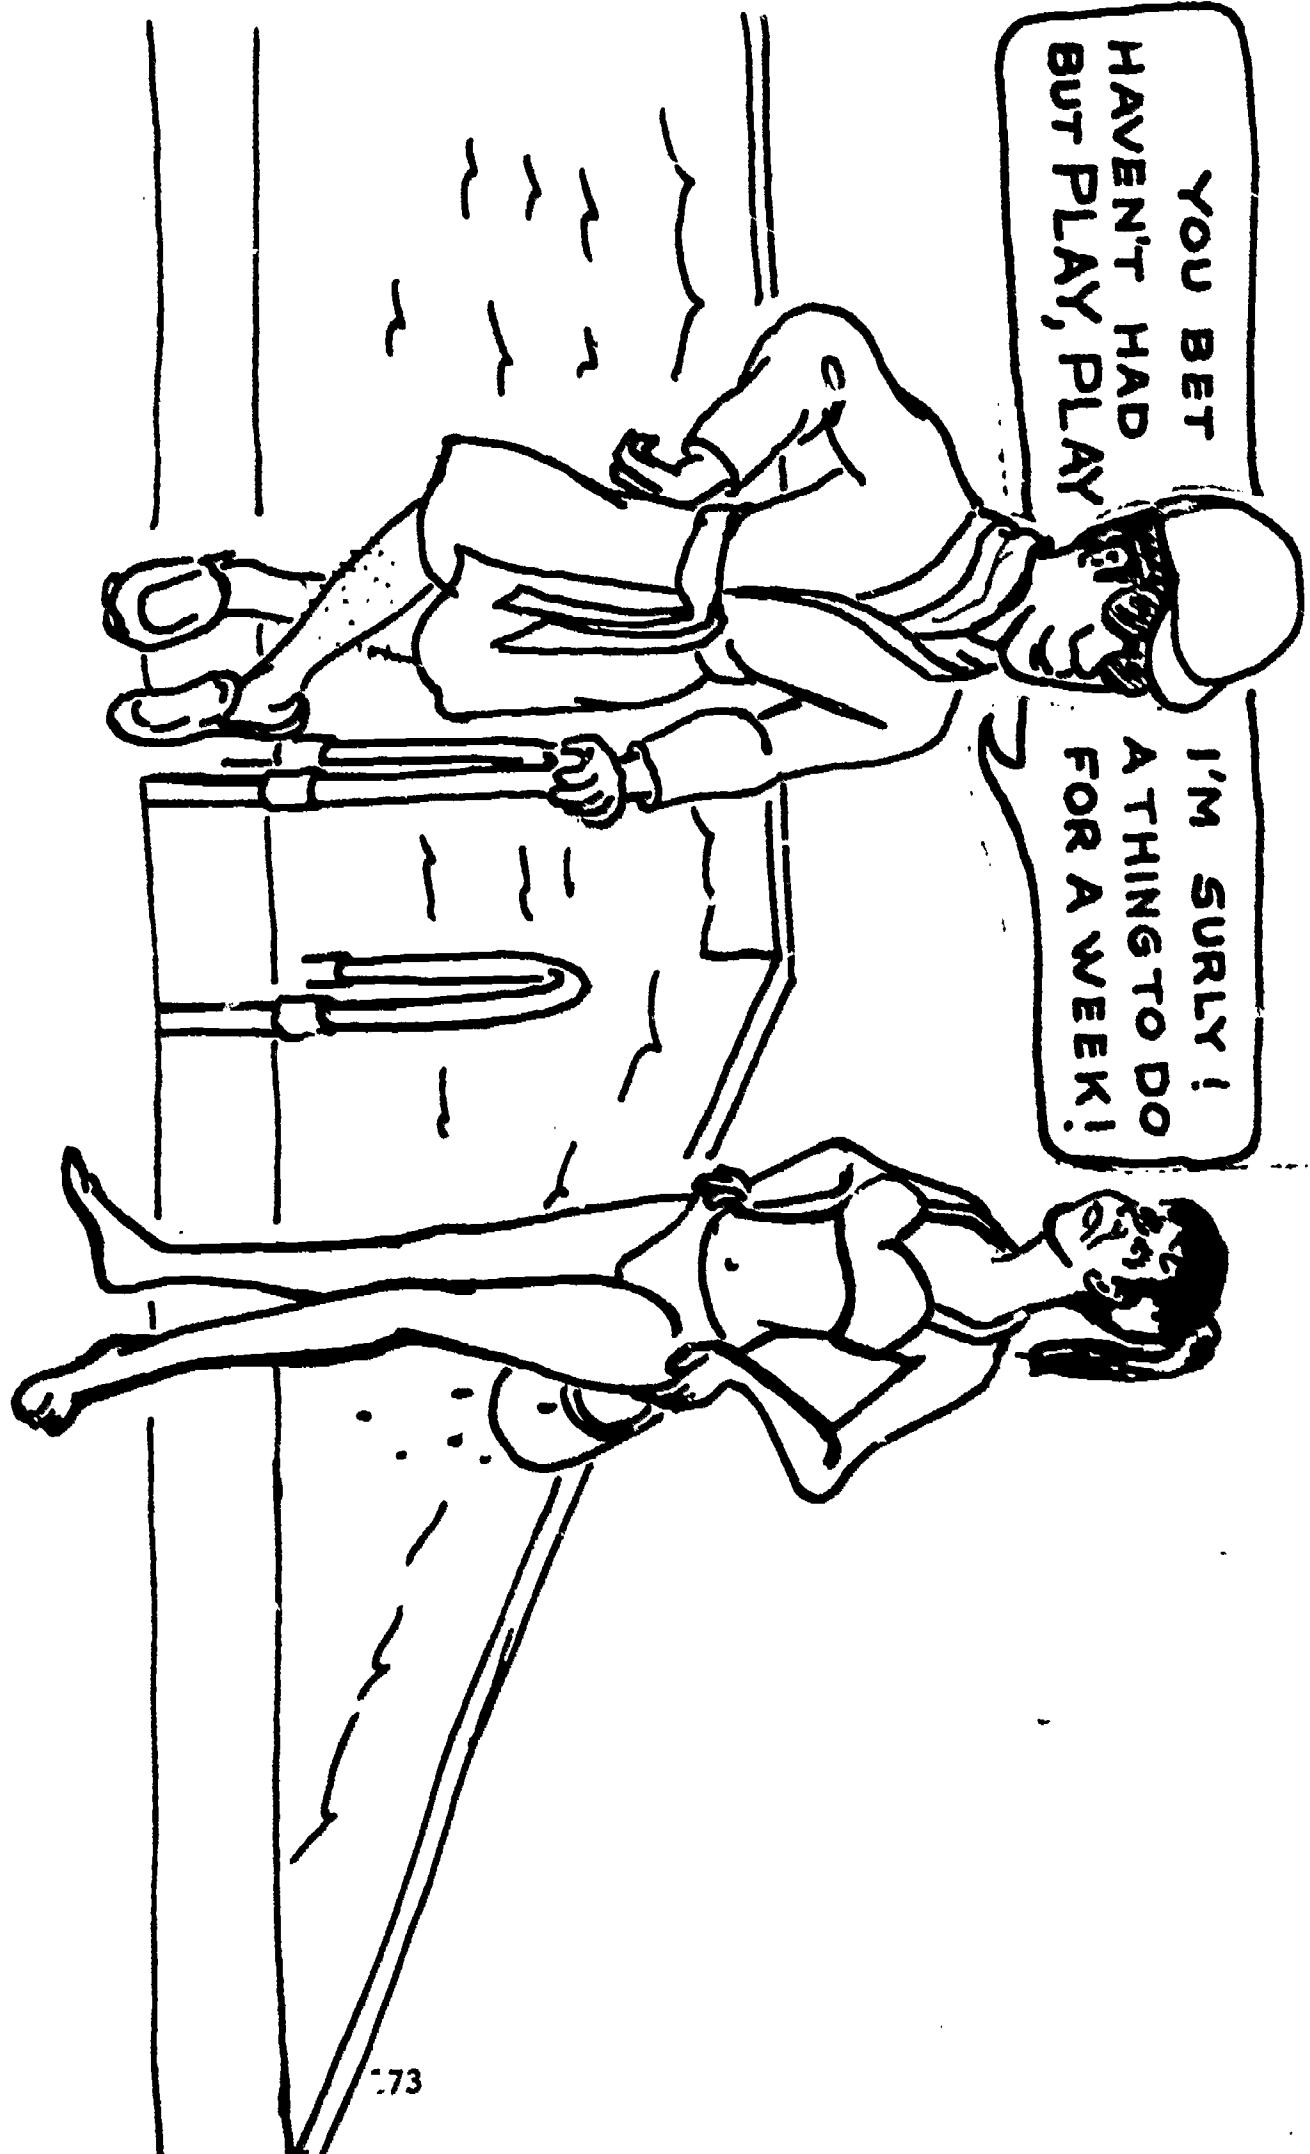

1. Tell how each cartoon shows that working rewards a person.
2. List some frustrations related to work.
